USB-C to VTAC PATCHCORDS

With a combination of VPC's revolutionary VTAC high speed connector and high speed USB-C, this patchcord is perfect for any interface requirement where speed and reliability are essential. Often used with PXI applications, these patchcords are available in a kit that includes both mating patchcords or sold individually.

Specifications

- Electrical performance conforms to USB 3.2 Gen 1 data rates, 5 Gbps
- Made in accordance with USB Type C specifications
- Full feature USB Gen 1 compatible with C-C applications
- Available at 36″ max length to ensure optimum performance

LEARN MORE